

CIT Growing in Connecticut

As of June, 2010, over 1000 police officers, state, federal and local police agencies, mental health probation officers from Connecticut's Court Support Services Division of the Judicial Branch, mental health parole officers of the Department of Corrections and their clinical community partners have received CABLE's Crisis Intervention Team Training.

CABLE has trained CIT officers from the following agencies. Those with * have a CIT policy.

Bethany – State Police Troop I	New Canaan PD
Bloomfield PD	New Haven PD*
Branford PD	New London PD*
Bridgeport PD	New Milford PD
Bridgeport – State Police Troop G	Norwalk PD*
Canton PD	Norwich PD*
Capital Community College Security	Plainfield PD
Central CT State University Police	Putnam PD
Danbury PD	Ridgefield PD
Danielson – State Police Troop D	Rocky Hill PD
Darien PD*	Simsbury PD
Department of Corrections – Mental Health Parole	Stamford PD*
Eastern CT State University PD*	State Capitol PD*
Eastern District State Police Major Crimes	Stonington PD*
Farmington PD	Trumbull PD
Glastonbury PD	U.S. Dept. of Veterans Affairs Police
Groton City PD	University of New Haven Police
Hamden	U.S. Marshall Service
Hartford*	Waterbury PD*
Judicial Branch – Court Support Services (Probation)	Waterbury FD
Ledyard – State Police Troop E	Waterford PD
Manchester PD *	Weslyan University Security
Mashantucket PD	West Haven PD *
Meriden PD	Westport
Middlebury PD*	Wethersfield PD*
Middletown PD	Willimantic PD*
Mitchell College Security	Wilton PD
Monroe PD *	Windsor PD*
Montville PD – State Police Troop E	Windsor EMS
Naugatuck Valley Community College	Yale New Haven Hospital Protective Services
New Britain PD *	Yale University PD*

CABLE and NAMICT continue to encourage police departments to implement a CIT policy. It ensures that a CIT patrol officer, if one is available, will be dispatched to a call involving a psychiatric crisis. For more information, call Louise Pyers at 1 800 215-3021 (NAMI-CT) or 203 848-0320 (CABLE, Inc.)